Campers Code of Conduct and Respect

I agree to treat all campers with honor and respect at all times. I agree that if a conflict should occur between me and another camper, I will seek the assistance of a camp counselor or another staff member to help resolve the conflict.

I agree that even though some counselors and camp staff are not much older than I am, I will treat all counselors and camp staff with honor and respect at all times. I also agree that should a conflict arise between me and a counselor or a staff member, I will bring this issue to a senior staff member to assist in resolving the issue.

I agree to respect the nature and wildlife at Dodasa Ranch Camp. I understand that Dodasa Ranch Camp is located in an area with abundant nature, and wildlife. I agree to not disturb, chase, harm, or injure any plants, trees, birds, squirrels, or any other form of nature and wildlife, located on or near Dodasa Ranch Camp.

I agree to respect Dodasa Ranch Camp. I understand that the owners of Dodasa Ranch Camp have dedicated their lives and money to building the camp facility for me and others, and I will never do anything to destroy, vandalize, or disrupt any property belonging to Dodasa Ranch Camp, fellow campers, or camp staff. I agree to inform a counselor or a staff member if I see another individual destroying, vandalizing or disrupting any part of the camp facility, or property belonging to others.

I understand that if I violate the "Campers Code of Conduct and Respect" that I could be sent home, and I will not receive a refund. I also understand that should I be sent home for misconduct, that I will be responsible for any transportation costs.
